EXPLANATION

Answer: B) 1 and 3 only

Explanation:

- Statement 1 is correct because greenwashing refers to companies making false or exaggerated claims about the environmental benefits of their products or services.
- Statement 2 is incorrect. Greenwashing can be intentional or unintentional, depending on whether companies deliberately mislead or simply lack proper understanding.
- Statement 3 is correct as the lack of clear, standardized definitions allows companies to make broad and often unverified claims about their products being "green" or "eco-friendly."
- .

Qn. 2: Answer: A) 3 only

Explanation:

- Statement 1 is not correct. The CCPA's primary functions include promoting and protecting consumer rights, investigating violations, and taking necessary actions. However, price regulation of essential commodities falls under the purview of other regulatory bodies, such as the Ministry of Consumer Affairs, rather than the CCPA.
- Consumer Protection Act, 2019 led to the formation of the CCPA.

Qn . 3 c only 3

Explanation:

Statement 1 is incorrect; the ARF includes ASEAN member states and other key dialogue partners, not just ASEAN countries.

- Statement 2 is incorrect; the ARF does not have a binding agreement; it operates primarily through dialogue and cooperation without legal obligations. Statement 3 is correct; the ARF indeed promotes confidence-building measures among its members.
