Qn. 4c

Explanation:

- Statement 1 is correct. The Abhidhamma provides an in-depth analysis of the nature of mind and matter, breaking them down into fundamental mental states (citta), mental factors (cetasika), and material phenomena (rupa).
- Statement 2 is incorrect. While the Abhidhamma may inform ethical practice, its primary focus is not on ethical guidelines (which are covered more in the Vinaya and Sutta Pitakas), but rather on the philosophical and psychological aspects of experience.
- Statement 3 is correct. Abhidhamma is one of the three parts of the Tipitaka (Pali Canon), along with the Sutta Pitaka and the Vinaya Pitaka.
